

I pay for and enjoy the services of satellite radio. It would be very artificial to say that satellite radio is somehow incapable of providing weather and traffic information. They are doing it now. I look forward to expansion of satellite radio into other local information areas. I urge you to reject the NAB petition 04-160 and keep our competitive options open in allowing, us the consumer, to choose what medium we want to use for these services.